Day 2

Shipton's Camp

After an early breakfast trek to Shipton's Camp (4200m). The hike is awesome but a good test on individual endurance on the mountain. The rigorous but exciting trek up takes you across hills and valleys through the entire stretch of the sprawling moorlands where you see several unique and interesting plants and animals including the Giant groundsels and lobelias and the mountain rock hyrax.

Day 3

Mackinders Hut/Camp via Hausberg col

Departing at 0800hrs ascend the Hausberg col (4600m) then descend steeply to Hausberg valley and Oblong tarns before making a further steep ascent, crossing huge boulders via Two Tarn making a descend back to Shiptons camp.

Day 4

Oldmoses Camp via Pt. Lenana

Leaving camp at 0300hrs you hike up the steep scree slopes and glacier to Point Lenana (4985m), the hiker's summit. It is planned that you arrive in time to witness the African Sun rising over the equator, reflect its golden glow on the Majestic peaks of Batian and Nelion - you may feel tired after this demanding adventure but absolutely ecstatic after you've made it to the top. After a brief celebration at the top descend to Shiptons camp (4200m) for breakfast then proceed further down to Old Moses. Relax the rest of the evening in readiness of our departure from the mountain tomorrow. Dinner and overnight at the Old moses.

It is possible to do this route in just 4 days by skipping the day 4 at Shipton's Camp

Old Moses to Nairobi

After an early breakfast, walk down through the rainforest for 2 hours, from where you connect the vehicle for transfer back to Nairobi. Arrival in Nairobi is by late afternoon.
